Warm-up Ring Rules

Maximum of six riders in the warm-up ring at any time

The ring is intended as a warm-up area for riders getting ready for a class, and not for extended periods of schooling or lessons. Priority for using the warm-up ring matches the sequence of rides/classes for the show. If the ring is too crowded, please wait your turn. If you are in the ring and it becomes crowded, please limit your time and defer to people who are preparing for a class.

Lunging

No lunging in the warm-up ring.

Headgear

Anyone mounted on a horse at any time on the competition grounds, including non-competing riders, riders on non-competing horses, and those competing in all classes and tests, must wear protective headgear. Any rider violating this rule is immediately prohibited from further riding until such headgear is properly in place.

Observe General Ring Etiquette

- If your horse is upsetting other horses and riders, you must leave the warm-up ring.
- Pass to the right (left shoulder to left shoulder, like driving a car).
- Walk your horse OFF the rail.
- Practice your figures (circles, etc.) on the inside track, not on the rail.
- Schooling on Grounds – please school after lunch when the ring is quieter.
- If you must halt or dismount, please exit the ring
- Please do NOT block the entrance to the ring.
- Please watch out for other horses.
- When passing and traveling in the same direction, call “inside” or “outside” to let the other rider know where you are going.
- Do not ride up directly behind another horse to avoid getting kicked. Stay one full horse length behind the horse in front of you and maintain that space when passing. If your horse is a known kicker, tie a red ribbon in his/her tail to warn other riders.

Please note: The grass area out back might not be safe for working horses, due to unknown sinkholes. Working horses in that area is at the rider's risk. Outside of the warm-up ring and near the show ring, all horses must WALK. No warm-up in the cross-country course.

If you have concerns or note any unsafe conditions, please notify the ring steward or show manager. Thank you for your attention, and have a safe and successful show!
